4Q12 performance better than expected

- Preliminary 2012 figures: splendid medien AG announced some preliminary key figures for FY12. Both figures revenues and EBIT exceeded our estimates. The group noted that in 2012 group revenues came in at EUR 50m after EUR 41.8m in 2011 (~+19.6% YoY). As a result, splendid's top line performance was about 1m higher than its own guidance. While top line was 'only' 2.9% above our forecast of EUR 48.7m, group EBIT of EUR 4.2m beat our estimate by more than 5% (CBSRe: EUR 3.9m). Since the company already increased its full-year guidance after the 9M figures up to a range between EUR 3.7m and EUR 4.2m (previously: EUR 2.7m to EUR 3.2m) the company still managed to achieve the higher end of the range. Given the positive development in 4Q it came with no surprise that the management will propose a dividend of EUR 0.10 per share at the next AGM (CBSRe: EUR 0.10). The final figures will be released on 28 March.
- 4Q12 performance: To break down the key figures into quarters, it is apparent that the group once again showed a strong YoY performance in their top line. While in 4Q11 splendid achieved revenues of EUR 11.6m, in 4Q12 the company's revenues stood at EUR 14.4m and, therefore, more than EUR 1m higher than we had previously expected. Two highlights in the last quarter were the positive development of the Home Entertainment sales of both films of the Expendables franchise. However, it is also worth mentioning that in 4Q also documentaries and special interest media contributed to this great quarterly result. While top line was up YoY, EBIT was down, mostly due to higher marketing expenses. These effects are not unforeseeable and relate to the deviation in the booking (most costs are one to two quarters prior to the film release and revenue income).
- The Last Stand: The only disappointment has been the performance of The Last Stand at the box office. Both in the US as well as in the German market the attendance was below expectations. Despite this weak start, we believe that supported by an already signed TV deal and possible positive development in the Home Entertainment market, this film will still contribute a positive income for the group, but likely lower than originally anticipated.
- PT unchanged: We confirm our BUY recommendation and stick to our PT of EUR 3.00. After the release of the final figures we will revise our valuation.
